a father and son storytelling team offers a collection of ghost stories the subjects of which include a crusader s ghost an alien spaceship and a phantom bus carrying resurrected passengers an overview of the fantasy genre and the works and authors that embody this great form of fiction the essays in this collection first came together at a conference held at London South Bank University's Centre for Media and Culture Research in September 2010 on representations of the war on terror in film and television this volume investigates the impact of death consideration on such phenomena as Buddhist cosmology, the poetry of Rilke, cults and apocalyptic dreams, Japanese mythology, creativity and even psychotherapy. Death is seen as a critical motivation for the genesis of artistic creations and monuments of belief systems, fantasies, delusions and numerous pathological syndromes. Culture itself may be understood as the innumerable ways that societies defend themselves against helplessness and annihilation, how they mould and recreate the world in accordance with their wishes and anxieties, the social mechanisms employed to deny annihilation and death. Whether one speaks of the construction of massive burial tombs, magical transformations of death into eternal life, afterlives or resurrections, the need to cope with death and deny its terror and effect are the sine qua non of religion, culture, ideology and belief systems in general.
